Claudia R. Bishop ‘39, of Greenwood, MS, on June 12, 2011.

Mrs. Bishop was born in Smith County to Alfred Grover Roberts and Clemmie Simmons Roberts of Money. She finished high school in Greenwood, attended Sunflower Junior College (now Mississippi Delta Community College) and graduated from Delta State University. While teaching school at Money, she met and married Robert Clifton Bishop of Drew. After World War II she and Clifton farmed at Money prior to moving to Glendora and later to Greenwood. Playing the piano and organ at Glendora Methodist Church for 28 years and her membership in the Music Club of Sumner were her hobbies and pleasures. She also enjoyed occasionally modeling for Deloach’s in Greenwood. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband. She leaves her son, Robert Clifton Bishop of Sumner, and his wife, Sharon; her grandsons, Clarke Reeves Bishop of San Francisco and Jason David Bailey of Starkville and his wife, Kitt; two great-granddaughters, Stella and Celia Bailey of Starkville; a brother-in-law, Clarke Bishop of Greenwood; and a sister-in-law, Ernestine Walker of Cleveland.
