

Donna S. Starkey
Delta State University

Contact Information:
P.O. Box 3142
Cleveland, MS 38733
(662) 846 – 4355
dstarkey@deltastate.edu

Education/Certification

Ph.D, Counselor Education, University of Mississippi, 2005
MEd, Community Counseling, Delta State University, 1991
BBA, Marketing, University of Mississippi, 1987

Mississippi Licensed Professional Counselor since 1992
Nationally Certified Counselor since 1992
Approved Clinical Supervisor since 2001

Work History

Assistant Professor of Counselor Education, Delta State University;
August 2005 to present
Instructor of Counselor Education, Delta State University;
August 2004 to August 2005
Practicum Lab Director, Division of Counselor Education, Delta State University;
October 2000 to August 2004

Teaching Load

Fall 2005
CED 600 Introduction to Counseling
CED 630 PrePracticum Techniques
CED 610 Community Counseling Internship

Spring 2006
CED 600 Introduction to Counseling
CED 630 PrePracticum Techniques
CED 610 Community Counseling Internship
CED 703 Psychodiagnostics

Scholarship

- Bodenhorn, N. & Starkey, D. (in press) Beyond role-playing: Increasing counselor empathy through theatre exercises. Journal of Creativity in Mental Health.
- Starkey, D.S. & Simpson, L.R. (in press). Turning group theory into group practice: The role of the experiential component in group facilitator training. In D. Viers (Ed.) The Group Therapists' Notebook. The Haworth Press, Inc.
- Starkey, D.S. & Rasmus, S. D. (2006). Individual and group assessment and appraisal. In D. Capuzzi & M. Shaffer (Eds). Career and Life Style Planning: Theory and Application. Allyn & Bacon.
- Simpson, L. R. & Starkey, D. S. (2004). Turning group theory into group practice: The role of the experiential component of a group counseling course. Delta Education Journal (1) 2, 16-29.

Work Supporting P-12 Education

- “Who’s Line is It Anyway?”, presented during the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision Conference, Pittsburgh, PA, Fall 2005.
- “Creating a Climate for Group Interaction”, presented during the Spring Conference for the Helping Professions, Cleveland, MS, Spring 2005
- “Beyond Role-Playing: Increasing Counselor Empathy through Theater Exercises” presented during the Southern Association for Counselor Education and Supervision Conference, Athens, GA, Fall 2004

Service

- Initiated and developed CED 630 PrePracticum Techniques class to increase success rate in CED 604 Practicum, beginning Fall 2005
- NCATE Committee on Advanced Programs, Spring 2005 to present
- NCATE Committee on Field Experiences, Spring 2005 to present
- Faculty Advisor, Chi Sigma Iota, Counseling Honor Society, Fall 2004 to present