The Boyd-Walters-Bobo Family Papers contains papers from sisters Dr. Eleanor Boyd Walters and Ruth Boyd Bobo.

Eleanor Walters was born in Gunnison, Mississippi in 1914. She graduated from Gunnison High School in 1930. Went to Delta State University and received a Bachelor of Science in Education in 1934. She went on to receive her Masters of Arts Degree from Drake University in 1939 and then to Columbia University to receive her Doctor of Education. Walters was a mathematics professor at Delta State University and went on to become Chair of the department. She received many awards and was a member to several organizations such as the American Association for University Women. Walters, after retirement, in she was honored by Delta State University and a building on the campus was named for her. She was on the Delta State University Committee for the 75th anniversary of Delta State University.

Ruth Walters graduated from Gunnison High School in 1936. She started out as a school teacher. She later retired from teaching so she could hunt with her husband, Jim Ed Bobo. She was a skilled turkey hunter and was second in command of the Farm Bureau Federation Woman's Committee. Also included in this collection are clippings and information from the political career of Jim Ed Bobo, who served as a Bolivar County Supervisor for many years.
