Discussion

- Centennial Celebration Ideas.....Emma Haley
This coming year, DSU will be celebrating 100 years of classes. To celebrate the centennial of the university, Emma Claire has been tasked with asking the Cabinet for ideas and presenting them at the upcoming Centennial meeting. The SGA Cabinet brainstormed ideas, and there will be a google doc sent into Teams this week for members to add ideas as they arise.
- Homecoming Football Game.....Emma Haley
This coming football game will be a green out theme, and tailgating will take place right after the Homecoming parade finishes. There will be no student parking at the football game. There will be shirts and cups handed out to students as they walk in the game. There is also a women's basketball game following the football game, so athletics is trying to think of ways to encourage students to attend both.
