A call to order was made at 6:03 by IFC President R. Clark

Members Present: Jordan Hartz, Alex Mauney, Taylor Whatley, Tripp Ellis, Charlie King, Hampton Strickland, Justin Ainsworth, Colby Kee, Conner Taylor, Matthew Talbert, Chase Clanton, JC Blackmon, Ryne Clark, John Michael Morgan, Deverick Balentine, John Holt Waldrop, and Jeanna Dacey Wilkes

Members Absent: Jacob Ludlam and Jacob Jackson

Chace Holland, Grammy Museum MS attended the meeting, asking for support for the museum's Grand Opening on March 3-5th. He asked for approximately 25 chauffeurs, phone numbers, and email addresses of people willing to valet. Chauffeurs need to wear black pants, shoes, socks, and jacket, and a white button-up shirt. The valet event will be held on Friday, March 4th from approx. 6 p.m. – midnight. All valet men will meet in the Simmons Room. President R. Clark will be responsible for collecting the list of men and presenting it to Holland. Lists are due to R. Clark no later than next meeting (February 16th).

Minutes from the previous meeting were approved; motion by C. Taylor, second by C. King.

In Officer Reports, Treasure's Report as of 2/9/2016 was made by IFC Treasurer J. Hartz.

Beginning Balance	$12,718.19
Add: Cash and Checks	40.00
Minus: Expenses	(239.96)
Total	$12,518.23

IFC Chapter active dues for the Fall of 2015 have been received; deposit was made. Open Recruitment Bowling event was paid in full. Chapter Room Rent is due; see Camesha Benson in SBS to set up payment plan or pay in full.

In Committee Reports, Kappa Sigma has signed two new members: Taylor Samonte and Kenny Sellars.

In Old Business, Advisor Wilkes and President R. Clark will draw up an official letter from IFC for the support of Phi Mu Alpha's request to leave IFC. The Open Recruitment bowling event was a good Greek-unity builder. We will consider the event again; advertisements and participation needs to be encouraged for all IFC activities. Open Bid began yesterday at noon and will end March 1, 2016 at noon. Advisor Wilkes requested that Chapters request time to meet with her in advance of Bid signing.

In New Business, Katie Busby is looking for $100 donation from IFC. R. Clark opened floor for discussion which was second by C. Taylor. Donating the advertising fee to Katie and Miss Mississippi has been tabled until she attends an IFC meeting and formally requests to donation. The motion to table the donation was made by T. Ellis and second by C. Taylor.
